Horses a 'traffic hazard' claims

Altona police and council have expressed alarm at a recent spate of collisions between wandering stock and motorists in the municipality.

The matter came to a head last week when a woman motorist was taken to hospital after her car collided with a horse.

A police spokesman told The Star that at weekends there was hardly a street in Altona that did not have a horse in it.

He said the number of incidents between horses, stock and motor cars was getting out of hand.

Altona town clerk, Mr. J. W. Waters, told The Star the council had expressed its concern over the matter a month ago.

He said the council was alarmed over the situation for three reasons.

Concerned

There were accidents that have happened, accidents that could happen, and expense involved to the ratepayer.

Mr. Waters said that it cost council a considerable amount of money in overtime whenever the ranger was called out to round up stray stock.

He told The Star the ranger had been called out at dawn one morning helping five police cars round up a number of stray horses. Much of the stock that caused problems did not come from Altona.

The council had recently been unable to trace a number of wandering cows found in the city.

Difficult

In many instances it was difficult to find the owner of the stray stock.

But Altona police say it is not only the stray stock that is causing concern.

They say that the number of young people riding horses in the streets has become a major problem from a safety angle.

They have issued a warning to all riders and motorists to beware of bolting horses, in an attempt to cut down on the number of accidents experienced recently.

Most of Altona would probably like to wish Sister Anne a return to health. Sister Anne is in charge of the St. Joseph Girls School, in Maidstone Street, Altona.
She is presently in retreat recovering from an illness. In her absence the school is headed by Sister Nora.

They won the cricket and lost the softball.

The cricket team have been undefeated so far this year. This week they will play Wembley.

There will be two meetings at the school next week for the school committee at 7.30 on Tuesday night and the mothers' club at Tuesday lunch time.

Nearly 150 children from the school went to the Show last week.

They were assisted by mothers, who helped with the supervision.

Two new appointments have been announced for next year. Mr. Brian Holcome, from Robinvale, will replace Mr. Bird as deputy principal.

Mr. Emblin will transfer to a one-man school and no librarian has been appointed yet.

ALTONA WEST

Big news from the school this week is that most of the sixth graders are hard at practice for their operetta, The Gallant Taylor, by Zelma Smith. It is being produced by Mr. Graeme Murdoch and other members of the staff.

It will be presented to the public in November at the Shire Hall.

The schools athletic team is practicing for the forthcoming school sports.

Next year's headmaster Mr. Jack Crawford, presently at Sunshine East will visit the school soon to attend a school committee meeting.

He will familiarise himself with the school and the parents. Mr. Noel Millar from Altona West will be deputy principal at Sunshine East next year.

The library is nearing completion and only awaits interior work.

BROOKLYN WEST

Two teachers have joined the school and two left this term.

The school has a visiting teacher from America, Mrs. Beverly Cook, who has a bachelor of Science and Education.

Mrs. Mervyn Burgess has returned to the school after her confinement leave and Mrs. Dugan has left on confinement leave.

Miss Lobb has also taken three months leave of absence.

The Parry Marshall puppet show will be visiting the school this week to put on a show for the children.

Parents are invited to a luncheon at St. Lukes Church of England Hall on Wednesday, October 13.

Conducted by the mothers' club it will start at 12 o'clock. Admission will be 75 cents.

The school played Brooklyn at sport last week.

The cricketers lost but both the softball and volleyball teams won.

The social service league has been busy at the school this week.

They recently donated $50 to the Freedom from Hunger campaign.

ALTONA NORTH

The school house sports were conducted last Friday.

An adventure playground is being planned for the school.

The sports master said that the children would be able to use their imagination crawling through pipes over and under logs and other obstacles.

A parents and staff dinner dance has been planned for October 15 at Shirley Park receptions.

Parents are invited to attend and may contact Mrs. Greig of the mothers' club on 397 2638.

The mothers' club will also be conducting a stall at the inter-school sports.

Three trips have been planned for the school children toward the end of this year.

Also a trip to the museum by grades one and two.

The swimming team have been practicing for the school sports at the Newport Swimming Academy.

The high jump team will compete at Newport Football ground this week in preparation for the athletic sports at the Williamstown Football Ground.

The competition will be in the Williamstown-Altona Sporting district.

They will be contested on October 5. Parents are invited.

SEAHOLME

It's also been a big week for trips at the school.

Children have been to the museum and to the show. They are also hard at practice for the sports.

Miss Dawn Hillman, a former teacher at the school, has returned after an overseas trip to Europe and England.

Parent teacher interviews will be held at the school.

ST. LEO'S

Lunchtimes and dismissal times at the school have been changed this term.

Lunch will now be between 12.30 and 1.30 and school will be dismissed at 3.30.

Working bees will be held at the school every Tuesday and Thursday evening at the school to finish off two more classrooms for next year.

During the holidays the school has had its garden landscaped by Mr. Jackson, a grandparent of one of the students.

Money has also been provided for a reading lab, and maths aids from the proceeds of the school's canteen.

FRANK TO PLAY 100th

When Frank Thomas steps onto the ground next week he will make history in the Altona Cricket Club, becoming the only man ever to play 100 games with the club.

Frank, a formation member of the club, and its first secretary was recently presented with a life membership certificate for his hard work in association with the club.

In most of his games Frank has been used as an opening batsman where his ability to cut a ball from the off stump has earned him many runs.

His top score last season was 94 runs, his highest ever. As an opening bat, he stayed until stumps, a compulsory closure cutting him short of a certain century. Frank has played in a number of premiership games for both A and B grades.

Practice has been difficult due to the weather over the last two weeks.

The practice against sub-district team Yarraville last week was cancelled when rain stopped play.

The lack of practice is worrying selectors, for the teams against Royal Park, at Royal Park (A grade) and Werribee and Royal Pk. for B and C grades respectively.

The club eleven will be playing away in one day matches each of the next two Saturdays.

All players are advised that a players night will be held on Thursday night, September 30.

Pantomime chance

Altona Drama Group will be casting for a pantomime on Monday night, October 4.

Boys and girls aged 14 and over are invited to the audition, which will be held at 83 Railway Street, Altona.

Experience is not necessary. There will be parties for singers and dancers.

The pantomime will be staged at the Civic Hall on November 29, December 1, 2, and December 3.

For further information you can ring Shirley Kean on 398 1051 after 5.30 p.m.

Hello Girls,
Wine Shine lipstick colors sound interesting — and they are — because they have been given to us by Cyclax. 1972 Vintage Lipsticks Claret Cup, Sherry Twist, Burgundy Fizz, Champagne Punch.

New, deeper, tasteful shades to wear with the latest fashion colors.
While speaking of Cyclax, let's look over some of their Special Treatments —

To purify your skin (draw away blemishes and blackheads). Liquid Beauty Mask painted on either overnight or for an hour or two; use twice a week for best results.

Special Eye Care. For tiny lines, fine wrinkles, "crow's feet" or puffiness. Neo Juvex Day Eye Cream. This hyper gentle cream will smooth away tension lines. Relieves puffiness, softens deep lines. Works all day, as it is worn invisibly under make-up.

Special Neck Treatment. Neo Juvex Cream for the neck. Your night-time emollient, non-greasy cream, replacing natural oils and vital moisture. Especially formulated for the neck area. Only gentle rotating massage is needed. For day, wear Neo Juvex Firming Lotion for the neck. Smoothing over your neck before make-up for a smoother, more youthful neckline.

Twenty Minute Mask. Cleanse face and neck thoroughly. Then sponge with warm water to open the pores. Dry, and apply Mask evenly with upward movements. Leave 20 minutes before removing with warm water. Now tone before applying make-up. Doesn't that feel good?

Revlon's special for you this week — large cans Living Curl Hair Spray. Has perfect holding power. Gives hair body and manageable; never a sticky film.

Regular Formula — for regular use.
Hard to Hold — elaborate styles and unruly hair.

Tinted and Bleached — for processed hair.
Use it as your setting lotion, dampen, pin up, then spray.

Brush dry hair into style — again spray.
Handy tube size Touch and Glow All-Day Moisture Base.

This is the highest base of concentrated all-day moisture. Absorbs quickly — makes for smoother make-up finish.

Use with or without make-up, girls.

Bye.

THE MAYFLOWER MILK BAR

pioneers the good life with the introduction of pure health foods.

Their friendly staff will advise you as to your purchase.

It costs nothing to look and you have a lot to lose — around your stomach.

Presentation night for table tennis

On Friday the 17th September the Western Suburbs Table Tennis Association held their annual presentation night at the Altona Central Hotel, Miller's Road, Altona.

Among the many honored guests were the major and lady mayoress of Altona, Mr. and Mrs. Lynch.

Also present were Councillor and Mrs. Les Crofts. The night was highlighted by the presentation of the Altona Central Hotel Trophy to an all-Altona team, Nova Arie Groen, Joe Reece, and Trevor Jones, (pictured above) by the manager of the hotel, Mr. Bert Stekelenberg.

This trophy is presented annually to the most successful junior team.

Other highlights of the night included the presentation of the Robert Fleming Trophy, to the most outstanding team, by the mayor of Altona, Mayor Lynch.

This year it was taken off by the Williamstown Colts team consisting of Steve Slattery, Chris Slattery and Barry Taylor.

Overall the night proved a great success and was enjoyed by all who attended.

CHESS WIN

The Altona Chess Club, which recently took part in Victorian interclub competition finished first in its division.

Messrs. Albantow, Laumets, Licht, and Mlinaric competing with the nine other clubs in their division took the lead with 27 points out of the possible 36.

Considering the short time the club has been in existence, this is a remarkable achievement.

The club urgently needs more members.

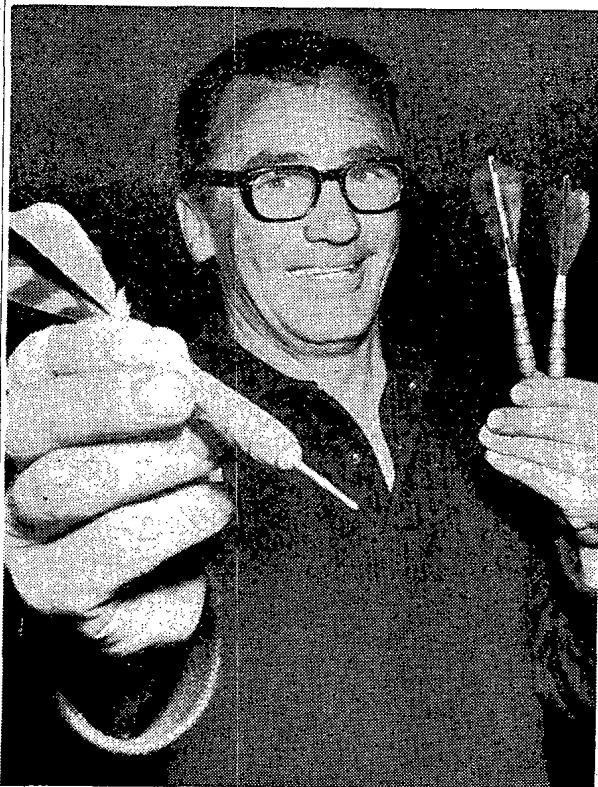

Clubrooms are situated at "The Circle" in the committee room, adjacent to the East Altona Library.

Meetings are held Thursday, 8 to 11 p.m.

Membership fee is $5 per year, pensioners and youths under 18, half fee only.

Bullseye for relaxation

"Maybe we're a bit ahead of our time," Mr. Neville Jessup, past president of the Western Suburbs Darts' Association said last week.

Mr. Thomas Charles lines up a bullseye.

"We have ladies playing in the men's teams because our rule book does not state sex. Not only do they play extremely well, but ladies are better sportsmen than men.

"They don't argue," he added. The female members of the men's team are Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. James, Mrs. Woollies and Mrs. Park-Nichol, who was a champion in England.

Mr. Jessup said the Association has about 1600 members from all over the western suburbs.

The main competitions are held every Thursday night at the Altona Working Men's Club, Seaholme.

"You must have the right temperament for the game," Mr. Jessup said.

"The man who can keep the calmest will probably be the winner.

"The young lads of today have so much nerver they make good players

"Some of the older ones take it too seriously . . ."

Because last Wednesday was ladies' night, the men mostly stood around watching and their expressions bordered on respect when a woman scored well.

There was some good natured ribbing going on, but the atmosphere was relaxed, happy.

Mr. Jesse James, who is the treasurer ("with a name like that I had to be one") says the game is good to get rid of your tension.

"Besides being a game, it's a let out for your emotions," he said.

"We've won the state championships three times and we've won every honor open to a dart player in Victoria.

"Most of the members are English, because dart playing is an English game, but we have New Australians and lots of Australians too."

Mr. James says it's a respectable game.

"Sir Francis Drake played darts on his ship, the Golden Hind," he said.

Two popular members of the association are "Whack" Hitch and Mr. Leon Ing of the Powell Hotel, Footscray who is a keen player and gives a lot of help to the association.

"The Western Suburbs Darts' Association was started in Altona, in 1964.

By 1968 their members were presented to Altona Council in recognition for the way they promoted the sport.

"Last year we were runners up for the Melbourne Cup," Mr. Jessup said.

Seven teams competed. Western Suburbs also won the 1969 State championship.

Mr. Ian Hunter is the 1971 singles and doubles champion, the first player to get both. He lives in Williamstown.

The players who competed in the Victorian Championship were Brian Smet, Footscray; Mick Ellis, Seaholme; Ron Bailey, ex Altona and now living in Melton and Allen Easton from Avondale Heights.

"Going by the number of members, we are strongest in any association," Mr. Jessup said.

"We were also the first association to hold the Victorian championship.

"The Victorian squad this year includes Bob Barber, Wally Ellis, Brian Smet and Alby Thorogood.

"You must train for this game. It looks easy, but when you throw darts eight feet from the board, you need more than luck. You also need a steady hand and good eyes."

The association presents money to local charities and recently it presented a cheque to a man in Williamstown, whose home was burnt down.

On Wednesday night, the first 100 was thrown by Klare Lillywhite and Mrs. Elsie Pedley was winner of the 1971 Ladies' Singles Championship. Runner-up was Mrs. Joan James.

The association has 64 registered female members but needs more women to make a ladies' league. No experience is needed and it's an easy game to learn.

New members are welcome to ring Mrs. Doris Shaw on 398 2658.

Mrs. Phyllis Saville, wife of the association secretary, Mr. John Saville is new to the game, but she is already doing well.

"The company is really good and it's such an enjoyable game," she said.

SMALL CARS IN BATHURST 500

While the specials of the Big Three car manufacturers battle for an outright win in Australia's classic sedan car race — the Hardie-Ferodo 500 at Bathurst on October 3 — there will be a frantic tussle going on at the same time.

One of the most hotly contested classes will be Class A (For cars priced up to $2150) in which Nissan Australia's Datsun Racing Team has entered two 1200 sedans. A 1600 sedan will compete in Class B ($2151 to $2500).

Since 1967, Datsun has won Class A twice and although the cars go more than 35 mph slower in top speed than the big GT V8's, they are driven maximum effort non-stop.

At the Sandown raceway in Melbourne on September 12, the Selco Datsun Racing Team won due to a lightning pitstop of only 26 seconds in Class A. The two Datsuns both lapped consistently within tenths of a second of their lap records for the complete 250-mile race.

Last year at Bathurst the Datsuns also won with their better fuel mileage and bigger fuel tanks.

Arch rivals at the beginning of the year, Doug Whiteford and Jim Laing-Peach will combine to run in the Selco Datsun Racing Team for the big Bathurst 500 race on October 3.

The two drivers were rivals when Laing-Peach drove another make during the Tasman series in February but both will run to team orders driving Datsun 1200's for Bathurst.

Team leader, Melbourne businessman, John Roxburgh, will combine with speed-shop proprietor Jon Leighton to drive a Datsun 1600 in Class B of the five-class Bathurst race.

DATSUMS WIN

A gruelling 250 miles at Melbourne's Sandown track broke some of the fastest cars in the "Sandown 250" on September 12, but not the Datsun 1200.

Two Datsun 1200s swooped in to take first and fourth places in Class A. Driven by three times Australian Grand Prix winner, Doug Whiteford and Melbourne's sons turned out to be the star attraction of the day after the demise of the big cars.

All afternoon, the Datsun 1200s of the Selco Datsun Racing Team grappled with extreme class competition.

Five of the cars in the class all led at one stage and all regularly lapped under the Class A circuit record of one minute 40.5 seconds.

Nowhere could the cars afford to "be polite" as faster cars rushed past, without jeopardising their own chances of success.

After the race Whiteford said, "yes, it's as close as that. I think it is harder and more demanding on concentration to keep the Datsun 1200 on-the-limit all day than the big cars with more power."

The Sandown race is a pipe-opener to the glamorous Bathurst 500 on October 3 when once again Class A cars will be hard at it to get home first.

BIG EXPANSION PLAN FOR FORD, GEELONG

The Ford Motor Company of Australia is to spend another $7 million expanding its facilities at Geelong.

This is in addition to the $45 million expansion programme announced in July last year, of which $33 million was allocated to the Geelong manufacturing complex.

Details of the latest programme were announced last week by the managing director of Ford Australia, Mr. B. S. Inglis.

Mr. Inglis said the activities involved in the expansion would include:

- The six-cylinder engine plant, where the capacity would be lifted to 390 engines per day;
- The chassis plant, where new equipment will increase production capacity of disc brakes by 50 per cent; and
- The company's export complex where 94,000 sq. ft. of additional building space would be added to provide facilities for packing and boxing 88 KD (knocked-down) vehicles per day.

Expansion

Mr. Inglis said the expansion of the six-cylinder engine capacity was needed to cope with increased local and overseas demand for the company's range of vehicles.

"It will complement production of our Australian manufactured V8 engines, which is scheduled to commence volume output in November of this year".

Mr. Inglis said that the new chassis plant, which was part of the 1970 expansion programme and would be fully operational early next year, would now be expanded to provide increased capacity for the production of disc brake assemblies.

"The continued development of our capacity for producing disc brakes results from the increased customer demand for this equipment. We expect this latest addition to the chassis plant to be in operation by early 1973".

Exports

Mr. Inglis said Ford Australia would export more than 25,000 vehicles, both fully built-up and knocked-down units, this year.

This would represent an increase over last year's record figures of some 60 per cent.

"The growth of our export markets has been quite staggering and the potential is greater yet. The expansion of our packing capacity is needed to cope with this rapid growth.

"We have been in the export business now for only 11 years but already we have passed the $100 million mark in export earnings.

"This year alone we expect to earn export revenue in excess of $42 million and we will have our second $100 million within three years".

Mr. Inglis said that the additions at Geelong would create further employment opportunities and would bring Ford's total employment throughout Australia to nearly 11,000.

STUDENTS DONATE BLOOD

Public spirited students from Altona North High this week donated blood to the Red Cross Blood Bank at Altona.

The principal of the school said that the students did it of their own volition, without any suggestion from him.

He said he was very proud of them.

He said that according to the Red Cross it could be the first time ever that a school has donated blood, and certainly the first time in Altona.

The school also looks like taking out the women's open discus at the forthcoming sports at Olympic Park.

They will be represented by Janina Sardi, the Australian junior title holder.

A meeting will be convened by the school's advisory council on October 8, for the combined fund raising organisations in the school.

TOUR IN THE RAIN

The members of the Altona Historical Society were pleased with the success of the car tour they organised on Sunday.

The Council supplied Spot Histories for those who took part in the tour which began at the Homestead with 20 people in six cars.

Two of the 20 were visitors from Williams-town and 10 were Altona Historical Society members. Each driver received an itinerary at the beginning of the tour and a total of $3.30 was donated to the Society during the afternoon.

Rain stopped the tour on several occasions and a dark coated figure visited each car pointing out the interesting peculiarities of the Spot stopped at.

The tour to Altona Meadows and the Explosives Reserve was omitted due to the bad weather.

The stop in Wren Street at the side of Altona's first coal mine brought some surprised reactions, as not many people realised that there were three coal mines in Altona.

The next meeting of the Society will be held on Wednesday, October 20, at 8 p.m. in the Committee Room of the Homestead.

128 Queen Street, Altona.

Mr. G. Bartlett an Honorary Architect to the National Trust, will be the speaker. He is extremely active in Trust affairs, and any interested resident or visitor will be made welcome at the meeting.

ALTONA HOT ROD

By RAY CLARKE

Ken Howard had the big job in front of him when the Hot Rod Handicap was reduced to 15 laps with no reduction in the handicap. Because of weather conditions the stewards at the Melbourne Speedway reduced the number of laps and even then, they just beat the rain.

Howard ran into fourth place in the handicap and also ran into fourth in the 10-lap scratch race. This was his worst showing for some time and could be explained by the heavy track.

He will be a logical choice for the Victorian title from the big Altona Hot Rod contingent.

Col Patterson, of Grieve Highway, has only raced for 1½ seasons but he has a fast car and the heaviest right foot in the business.

Robert Davies, of Railway Street, is also only 19 years of age and like Patterson, he uses a very fast Holden.

Danny Luckett and Eddie Byrne, both of Altona and both driving S. V. Fords will also be racing in the State title later in the season. All of these drivers will be racing in the opening of the night season, next Saturday, the 2nd of October.

The 28-event card will feature every type of Speedway competitor including the welcome return of Solos, Speedcars and T.Q.s racing will commence at 7.30 p.m.

Every Day in "The Age"

Mr. Doug Fox-Lane, VACC president

The honorary presidency of the Victorian Automobile Chamber of Commerce has become a prestige job over the past couple of years.

About two years ago, the VACC became wealthy and influential almost overnight when it sold its 24.9 per cent. interest in an insurance company for a round $6 million.

The chamber can thank the far-sightedness — or sheer luck — of its office-bearers of about 50 years ago for its sudden power. It now owns a big office building in St. Kilda Road, which gives it a large weekly income.

It has a staff of 75 and an annual wages bill of $335,000.

It has been able to enter an ever-widening sphere of activity in the motor industry.

The chamber has about 6000 members, but its influence directly affects an estimated 120,000 motor trade workers.

In addition, it has been able to start providing important services to the car-buying public.

The new president of this vast organisation is

Mr. Douglas Fox-Lane, owner of Fox-Lane Motors and Fox-Lane Body Works in Keilor.

Mr. Fox-Lane's election to the job is the climax to a successful business career.

He started in the motor trade in 1956 and opened the Golden Fleece service station at Essendon Airport two years later.

He started a car parking service at the airport in 1959.

In 1963, he expanded into the repair side of the motor industry with Fox-Lane Motors and six years later founded Fox-Lane Body Works.

His rapid success is remarkable, because he was a taxi driver for 14 years after coming out of the army with £82 deferred pay at the end of the war.

Mr. Fox-Lane said: "I never really had a hankering to play around with cars, like so many youngsters, but I just sort of gravitated into that field."

"I would describe myself as more of a practical man than an academic."

Mr. Fox-Lane and his wife Blanche have lived for the past four years in a luxurious, ranch-style home at Greenvale.

They have two married wife, Blanche, have lived sight of our increasing responsibility to the public."

Mr. Fox-Lane has taken 13 years to rise to the Chamber's top honorary job.

He was senior vice-president for the previous two years and has been elected for a two-year term as president.

Mr. Fox-Lane is excited about the VACC's increasing activity in the community.

About 12 months ago, an investigation and advisory service was started.

Two investigation and advisory officers are employed by the Chamber and they have a full time job investigating complaints.

No charge is made for the initial investigation.

If the chief investigation officer, Mr. F. McGough, decides that the complaint is serious and can be settled by him, he will give the complainant the opportunity to take it before a pre-selected panel of arbitrators.

The complainant can save hundreds of dollars in legal fees, because the only charge is $5 for administrative costs.

"They have to sign a document to say they will abide by the decision of the panel of arbitrators, who are not members of the motor trade or the VACC."

Their decision is legally binding.

The Chamber is considering extending its service to the public by founding a road service organisation.

A feasibility study is under way at present.

Other important projects during Mr. Fox-Lane's term will be proposed changes to the motor car traders act and the continuing battle to end the petrol war.

Mr. Fox-Lane said new legislation being proposed to the Government will set up a fund for people who get a bad deal from used car dealers.

Dealers will be licensed and bonded, with their bond being placed in a trust fund.

If any complaints are found to be warranted a payment will be made from the fund.

Missions to seamen annual fair

The Missions to Seamen annual fair to be held on Saturday week include a special display of military miniatures.

These are owned by Mr. Gordon Muirhead, of the MS Cathay.

These miniatures include pieces from all over the world with a large number coming from Britain.

Complete regiments will be on display — every detail is authentic.

Mr. Muirhead, a Scotsman, is in touch with collectors all over the world and his collection which is valued at $5000, contains 550 pieces, all of them collector's items.

As usual, the excellent fruit and vegetables, homemade cakes and jams etc. for which the Fair has become famous of latter years, will be on sale, commencing at 9.30 a.m.

Conducted tours around the docks, pony rides, crazy bikes, lucky dips and other novelties for the children will be a part of the Fair together with all the other well stocked stalls for young and old alike.

Morning and afternoon tea and luncheon will be available and it is hoped to see a bigger than ever crowd at the Mission on Fair day.

FREEDOM OF CITY

Williamstown's civic fathers are pulling all stops out to make sure that Saturday, November 27, will be a memorable day.

That's the day when Williamstown Council will cement a naval tradition dating back more than a century by conferring the freedom of the city on the Royal Australian Navy.

A contingent of naval VIPs will be coming to Williamstown for the gala occasion and there will be a parade of 500 naval personnel before a ceremony at the town hall at 2 p.m.

Principal guests will be the Minister for the Navy, Mr. Howson, the executive officer of the Naval Board and the Secretary of the Navy.

And the Mayor of Williamstown, Cr. M. J. Robertson, said after Monday night's council meeting that an invitation would be issued to the Governor, Sir Rohan Delacombe.

Cr. Robertson told The Advertiser on Monday that the format for the freedom of entry ceremony had been framed during a series of meetings between council officers and naval officials.

He said that final details would be announced next Friday after another meeting with naval officials.

"This will be one of the proudest days in Williamstown's history," Cr. Robertson told The Advertiser.

"The history of Williamstown is steeped in naval tradition and I can't think of a better way to perpetuate that link."

In announcing the date for the ceremony, Cr. Robertson paid tribute to the outgoing Mayor, Cr. Jack Byron who had handled arrangements with the navy until Cr. Robertson's installation earlier this month.

A 20-minute fireworks display will be staged seawards of the Ferguson Street Pier on the eve of the ceremony and the Naval Dockyards will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 1.30 p.m. on November 27.

The actual ceremony will be preceded by a parade of 500 naval personnel, to be drawn from HMAS Cerberus, officers and members from an R.A.N. destroyer and the WRANS, from the Commonwealth Reserve along Nelson Place and Ferguson Street to the town hall.

At the town hall, the Minister for the Navy will sign the freedom roll and be presented with a freedom scroll.

Cr. Robertson said he expected great support from the public and announced that a network of amplifiers would be strung along Ferguson Street to broadcast speeches to the public.

He said provisions would be made to hold the ceremony indoors in the case of bad weather.

In a press release issued on Monday night, Cr. Robertson said that the conferring of freedom of entry was the highest honor the city could bestow as a recognition of services and outstanding achievements by the navy in both peace and war.

Mr and Mrs. Gary James Cooper are pictured cutting the cake after their wedding at the Church of Christ, Williamstown.

The bride, formerly Miss Elizabeth Jean Tee is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tee of Charles Street, Williamstown, and Gary is the eldest son of Mrs. J. Cooper of Stawell and the late Mr. R. Cooper.

The bride was attended by her sisters Jennifer and Lorraine.

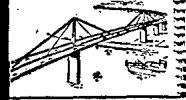

Matron of honor was Mrs. Helen O'Connor.

Best man was Mr. Bill O'Connor and groomsmen were the bride's brothers Bert and Peter.

CRB is callous

The Country Roads Board was attacked by Footscray Council last week as having a "callous approach" over the provision of a pedestrian overpass on the corner of Geelong Road and Barkly Street.

The Board had informed the Council that it didn't consider a pedestrian overpass was warranted by the volume of traffic in the area.

Councillor George Cruickshank stated that the Board was adopting a callous and ridiculous approach.

He said the Government was honor-bound to make provision for children to cross safely whenever they put a highway in front of a school.

Other councillors affirmed that this was stated Government policy.

Cr. Bert Heatley stated that the CRB had taken a survey which did not show the full facts of the situation.

He said the CRB's survey showed that "only" 150 children crossed the intersection between 3.00 and 4.15 p.m. on one particular day.

He claimed that 330 children at the school lived on the other side of the intersection and that 383 crossed the intersection four days a week en route to the library and baths.

Grand slam for Altona City

For the second successive year, Altona City Football Club has taken off the grand slam, winning all three age group Grand Finals.

The seniors went on to the field last week in gusty conditions to win by nine points from their rough-and-tumble rival West Newport.

West rallied in the last quarter kicking six goals to add an exciting finish to the game.

City managed to kick just enough points to give them a win.

The City side went on to the ground without three of their star players, Brennan, Tisdale and Malloy, out with injuries.

Graeme Brennan has broken ribs, Maurie Tisdale broken ribs and Austin Malloy, Jr. a broken arm.

All of the injuries were sustained in the previous week's game.

The premiership ball and presentation night will be held on Friday.

On Friday week the team will leave for their trip to Tasmania.

The juniors will be attending an evening at TV Ringside.

Local identity 'Boydie' Probert won the club's $1000 special effort.

The president of the club Mr. Bernie Brennan said Mr. Probert generously made part of his prize a donation.

The other prizes were also won locally.

Next week's Star will carry a full list of the best and fairest awards for the club.

PENNANT BOWLS

The Altona Bowling Club's Ladies opened their pennant season last Tuesday.

This year they will field two teams, A.1 and B.2.

Show Day bowls winners were T. Mitchell, D. Gadsden, J. Douglas and S. Pilcher, captain.
